Six Bottles of Louis M. Martini Cabernet Sauvignon (Silent Auction)

$400

Courtesy of Louis M. Martini Winery

Monte Russo Vineyard has been producing award winning wines for three generations. Rating 90/100 by Wine and Spirits Magazine. Winner of multiple gold and silver awards.

Five Liter Bottle of Centine Wine (Silent Auction)

$100

Courtesy of Banfi Vintners

Savor a soft, easy-to-drink and gentle approach to wine with this bottle of Centine from Banfi Vintners! You'll be amazed with its intense but youthful hints of ruby red in which the Tuscan character of the Sangiovese is perfectly married with the international character of the Cabernet and Merlot.

Five Liter Bottle of Col di Sasso Wine (Silent Auction)

Courtesy of Banfi Vintners

One of the best known and appreciated Banfi labels in the world, Col di Sasso, which translates to "Stony Hill," is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Sangiovese cultivated on the most rocky and impervious slopes of the Banfi estate in Montalcino, a hilltown and commune in Tuscany, Italy. The perfect marriage between these two grapes gives birth to a youthful yet concentrated and extremely fruity red wine.

One Three Litre Bottle of Brazin (Silent Auction)

$100

Courtesy of Delicato Family Vineyards

This three liter bottle of Old Vine Zinfandel is one of 25 bottles produced for the state of Washington. Big, bold aromas of spice and mocha, intense flavors of plum and chocolate, rich tannins and vanilla mocha notes. Brazin is not a wine to be rushed - don't be afraid to savor its long, lingering finish. Be Brazin with your meals and serve with saucy ribs, a juicy pepper steak, pasta with spicy red sauce or pizza with the works!

Three 750 ml Bottles of Santi Amarone Promeo (Silent Auction)

Courtesy of Frederick Wildman

Once again this year the Proemio is the top pick, an Amarone 2005 with a modern profile that is subtle despite the richness deriving from partial drying of the grapes, offering clear, fresh flowery aromas and notes of forest fruit. Already excellent today, it will only improve with bottle-ageing. This is a stunning Amarone and a well-deserved Three Glass winner!

Case of 2003 Chateau Clerc Milon (Live #29)

Courtesy of Steve and Dianne Loeb

Experience the rich flavors of Chateau Clerc Milon! The 12 bottles of the 2003 year not only come in its original wood case, but each bottle has a dense, deep, intense colour and a refined, pleasantly smoky nose on which notes of spice, black berry fruit and liquorice mingle with more subtle touches of violet and white pepper. The attack is full, with a certain heft, building rapidly on well-defined, firm tannins elegantly supported by fine oak and displaying smoke, coffee and vanilla flavours. A very good Clerc Milon, layered and alluring, combining the richness and fullness of Merlot with the density of thoroughly ripe Cabernets in a crisp and succulent finish.
