Happy Year of the Sheep! If this is your year, you might be 12 or maybe 96, and you’re in good company with other leading Sheep like Muhammad Ali, Mikhail Gorbachev, and Michelangelo. Come celebrate the Lunar New Year at The Wing and then join us at our annual auction dinner on Saturday April 4 at the Westin Seattle. At this year’s dinner, Legacies for our Future, we’ll hear from our youth who have connected with some of the 90-year-olds shaping The Wing’s future. We’ll celebrate with figure drawings of 91-year-old contributing artist Amy Hanada Nikaitani, who lives in a Chinatown-International District apartment and goats at the public golf course every week when the weather allows.

We recognize the 90-year-olds during the 90th birthday year of our namesake Wing Chong Luke, who was born on February 18, 1925. Being the legacy of a social pathbreaker like Councilmember Luke continues to shape The Wing’s direction and work today. This includes the new exhibition Do You Know Bruce?, which tells the story of Bruce Lee, another locally-rooted Asian American pathbreaker, who rose to global prominence. People from all over the world have found their way to The Wing since this exhibition opened last year, elevating our attendance and sales by 130%, and with over 70% of visitors having their first experience here. Some take the popular neighborhood tour Bruce Lee’s Chinatown, including dining on Bruce Lee’s favorite dishes at his hangout in Chinatown’s oldest restaurant.

I am learning how people’s awareness, love, and respect for Bruce impels them to take a step into the unknown and experience the Chinatown-International District neighborhood, aiding this historic community in forging its future.

Let 2015 be a year of accomplishment for each of you! Thank you for energizing the Wing Luke Museum, your community resource!

Beth Takekawa, Executive Director

A Message from the Executive Director
WHAT IS THIS?

Can you identify this basketball team? HINT: The team name starts with an "H" and this picture was taken around 1939-1940.

Email your guess to pr@wingluke.org, along with your name and contact information. Correct responses will receive a museum pass. Look for the correct answer in the Summer 2015 newsletter.

Famous horses: Michelangelo, Jane Austen, Mark Twain, Muhammad Ali, Mick Jagger, Chow Yun-Fat, Nicole Kidman, Zhang Ziyi

Characteristics of people born in the Year of the Sheep: Reserved, creative, dependable, intelligent, calm, fashionable, considerate, romantic, kind, sensitive

REMEMBERING OUR ROOTS

On the first floor in the Museum, there is a picture of Wing Chong Luke and the Jackson Street Community Council (JSCC) circa the late 1950s. In the picture, Wing stands in a semi-circle with council members, reflecting the diversity of communities that live near and around Jackson Street. They understood that even though people may live separately, the street connects them and it would take everyone working together to grow and prosper.

Wing Luke would be 90 years old this year. Many things have changed since his passing in 1965 but the necessity of strengthening relationships among communities remains true today. As we set out to remember and honor our museum’s namesake, it is only fitting to ask you, our community, “What does Wing Luke mean to you?”

What kind of senior class president was he? Was he always politically engaged? Do you have pictures of you and Wing? Did you eat a campaign fortune cookie? What impact did he have that you see in your community today? Contact May Nguyen at mnguyen@wingluke.org to share your memories and stories.

On Saturday, March 14, as we honor him and remember his life, his work, and his dedication to his community and Seattle. We also look at how he continues to influence us even now.

CONSTRUCT\'S: INSTALLATIONS BY ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN WOMEN ARTISTS

On display May 15 through October 18, 2015

Curated by Dr. Stacey Uradomo-Barre

Artists Lynne Yamamoto, Yong Soon Min, Kaili Chun, Tamiko and Midori Kono Thiel, and Terry Acebo Davis have been invited to transform the spaces of the George Tsutakawa Art Gallery. Construct’s includes five installations that encourage visitors to explore history and memory, trauma and healing, traditional arts and new technology, colonialism, identity, belonging, and more — all through unique immersive and interactive environments created by these Asian Pacific American women.

FROM THE COLLECTIONS

Can you identify this basketball team? HINT: The team name starts with an "H" and this picture was taken around 1939-1940.

Email your guess to pr@wingluke.org, along with your name and contact information. Correct responses will receive a museum pass. Look for the correct answer in the Summer 2015 newsletter.

From the Wing Luke Museum Collection

BEREY THE SCENES OF AN UPCOMING EXHIBITION

CONSTRUCT\'S: INSTALLATIONS BY ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN WOMEN ARTISTS

On display May 15 through October 18, 2015

Curated by Dr. Stacey Uradomo-Barre

Artists Lynne Yamamoto, Yong Soon Min, Kaili Chun, Tamiko and Midori Kono Thiel, and Terry Acebo Davis have been invited to transform the spaces of the George Tsutakawa Art Gallery. Construct’s includes five installations that encourage visitors to explore history and memory, trauma and healing, traditional arts and new technology, colonialism, identity, belonging, and more — all through unique immersive and interactive environments created by these Asian Pacific American women.

BRUSH THE SKY

MERCHANDISE

COMCAST NBCUNIVERSAL PRESENTS:

Year of the Sheep Coloring Contest

Apply the creative spirit of the sheep to our annual Lunar New Year Coloring Contest, featuring a Year of the Sheep design by local artist Junichi Tsuneoka. One creative participant (age 12 and under) will be voted online as the winner of the grand prize of $800 to spend at shops and restaurants at The Bellevue Collection and membership to The Wing. There will be additional 12 runners up.

Download the coloring contest at wingluke.org/coloringcontest, and submit it in person at The Wing by Tuesday, March 31st, 2015. Follow us on social media for more details on the online voting process.

@winglukemuseum wing Luke Museum

REMEMBERING OUR ROOTS

On the first floor in the Museum, there is a picture of Wing Chong Luke and the Jackson Street Community Council (JSCC) circa the late 1950s. In the picture, Wing stands in a semi-circle with council members, reflecting the diversity of communities that live near and around Jackson Street. They understood that even though people may live separately, the street connects them and it would take everyone working together to grow and prosper.

Wing Luke would be 90 years old this year. Many things have changed since his passing in 1965 but the necessity of strengthening relationships among communities remains true today. As we set out to remember and honor our museum’s namesake, it is only fitting to ask you, our community, “What does Wing Luke mean to you?”

What kind of senior class president was he? Was he always politically engaged? Do you have pictures of you and Wing? Did you eat a campaign fortune cookie? What impact did he have that you see in your community today? Contact May Nguyen at mnguyen@wingluke.org to share your memories and stories.

On Saturday, March 14, as we honor him and remember his life, his work, and his dedication to his community and Seattle. We also look at how he continues to influence us even now.

COMMERCE: Year of the Sheep Coloring Contest

Apply the creative spirit of the sheep to our annual Lunar New Year Coloring Contest, featuring a Year of the Sheep design by local artist Junichi Tsuneoka. One creative participant (age 12 and under) will be voted online as the winner of the grand prize of $800 to spend at shops and restaurants at The Bellevue Collection and membership to The Wing. There will be additional 12 runners up.

Download the coloring contest at wingluke.org/coloringcontest, and submit it in person at The Wing by Tuesday, March 31st, 2015. Follow us on social media for more details on the online voting process.

@winglukemuseum wing Luke Museum
Welcome new trustee Bo Lee. Bo is currently a Vice President/Senior Portfolio Manager at BNY Mellon. Bo has over 15 years of experience providing investment management solutions and comprehensive financial planning advice for private clients, endowments, and foundations. Within the community, she serves on the Board of Directors for the French American Chamber of Commerce in Seattle; is an active member of the Washington Women’s Foundation; an advisory board member of the Seattle Children’s Hospital Board; and serves on the Seattle Philanthropic Advisor Network and the Financial Planning Association.

Many thanks and farewell to departing trustee Bruce Hayashii. Bruce served on The Wing’s board for 10 years, and as a neighborhood participant and owner of an architectural firm was instrumental in guiding the museum’s growth decisions. We are grateful for his service and for being a great ambassador for The Wing.

Please welcome new staff members who recently joined the museum, Jaemin Eng, Sarah Oh, Chris Potter, and Kela Wong. Thank you to Jennifer Chen and Stacey Sw arrogantly who recently completed their service to the museum.

In the past five years, both Matt and Gei’s donations of time and knowledge have helped the Museum present two popular exhibitions, In the past five years, both Matt and Gei’s donations of time and knowledge have helped the Museum present two popular exhibitions, /b and Fashion: Workroom to Runway.

SUPPORTER SPOTLIGHT:

MATT & GEI CHAN

At that time, few if any Asians designed mainstream fashion in the 1970s. She dressed a generation of young women with Hoarders. Gei was part of the initial wave of Asian American designers to impact accomplishments in fashion and television. Matt is a leader in non-fiction television.
FRIENDS
Viola Brumbaugh
Charlie and Kathy
Ms. Heidi Baldwin
Geraldine and James
Carol and Michael
Chaz and Leith Adams
Willie and Faye Dong
Jacquie Dinnie
Eduardo Diaz
Ms. Dagmar R. Cronn
Candace Chin
Bill and Mamie Chin*
Winston and Jennifer
Jenny and Michael Yeh
Bensky*
Roger Anderson*
Chothia
Yamasaki
Rahul K. Gupta and
Mr. Jordan M. Nordstrom
Mr. Daisuke Nakashima
Mr. Carol M. Moriguchi
Ms. Vivian Miller-Rahl
May Toy Lukens
Dr. Ray Lou
Mr. Bernard Liang
Wilson Li and Nahal Li
Ms. Litonya R. Lester
James Langseth*
Pamela Johnston
Ms. Alyssa M. Jocson and
Mrs. Arbok B. Ives and
Anjulie Ganti and Gabriel Nakashima
Janice Ann Potter*
Mr. Seaton Wang*
Annette L. Puente
Barbara Parker and
Mary Lea Askelson*
Lanss B. Anderson
Ms. Hazelruth L. Adams
Bill DeBoer
Coastal Kitchen
Chocolate Box
Donnie Chin
Lolan Lo Cheng
Diem Chau
Canlis Restaurant
Barnard Griffin
Allegro Performing Arts
Aha Toro Spirits, Inc
A to Z Wineworks/REX
DONORS OF
Seattle Office of Arts & Culture
Arts的一项敬意

IN MEMORY OF
Paul Adams
Alice Ho
Renee Grenfield
Heidi M. Gleb
Barbie Gauff
Peter L. Chun
Linda and Suey-Hong
Virginia Washburn; Kurt and Brady Wakayama*; Diane and Rich
Dolores Sibonga*; Sharyne Shiu Thornton; James Ter Beek
Merrily Taniguchi
Mr. Ken T. Tan
Mr. Samuel Tamayo
Mitsu Sundvall
Ms. Judith G. Stitzel
Joon and Seungja Song*
Susan Sherbina
Ms. Sue J. Shaw
Laurel Sercombe*
Gayle Rodgers*
Madeline A. Renkens*
Susanne Ratcliffe Wilson
Julie Pham
Fred Ye and
Amber Wong
Ms. Dorice L. Wolfrom*
Janis Willett*
Paul Bock
Dionisio Antonio:
Alice Ito
IN MEMORY OF TRIBUTE GIFTS
Ray Ho:
Fumiko Hayashida:
Fred Cordove:
and Family*
Paula Chinn*; Frances
Glenn Chin; Lucy Chin;
Frank Chin*; Mae and Dionisio; Jon and
Batayola and Dionnie
Konishi; Steve Mikami
and Albert Y. Ong; Scot
Melvin Fujita; Kai Fujita;
Marge Young*
Anne Denman
Steve Momii
Jane Mayer
Tomoko Moriguchi
Bill Ishii:
Dan Mar:
Dr. Glen K. Kiyonaga:
Howard King:
Ted Wah Jue:
Diana M. and Tom Iwata:

IN THE HONOR OF
Bill Ichih Tomiyama
Wendy and Brady
Carlos; Victor and Dameko
Roden
Mira M. Jan
Pamela G. Bradburn*
Katherine Cheng:
Grace Y. Chapman
Pamela G. Bradburn*
Katherine Cheng:
Grace Y. Chapman

DONORS OF OTHER GOODS & SERVICES

109
Our Mission is to connect everyone to the rich history, dynamic cultures and art of Asian Pacific Americans through vivid storytelling and inspiring experiences. The Wing is a proud Smithsonian Affiliate, a partnership with the Smithsonian Institution.

719 South King Street
Seattle, WA 98104
wingluke.org
206.623.5124

Tuesday–Sunday, 10am–5pm
First Thursday of the month, 10am–8pm
Closed Monday

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

SAVE THE DATE
SUMMER CAMP
@ THE WING!

Registration through July 1

COSTUMES:
A journey in story and character
August 3–7

CURTAIN CALL:
An adventure in performance and theatre
August 10–14

Tailored for ages 6–12

To learn more, visit wingluke.org/summer-camp

Summer Camp Puppets 2014